Is it possible for an ordinary person to become a millionaire? And can this be achieved without a lottery win, an inheritance payout, or an Ivy League education? The answer is yes: you just have to know how. The Millionaire Next Door explores the habits, lifestyles, and values of America's self-made millionaires, who often make surprising choices when it comes to building wealth. Adopt their smart financial strategies, change your outlook on consumption, turn investment into a key routine, and create a wealth-maximizing way of life. You will learn:

- How to assess whether you're on the road to wealth or whether you're sabotaging your chances of financial security
- What the common bad habits of financial under-achievers are-and how to avoid them
- The steps you need to take to build your assets and achieve financial freedom.
