Susanne Ekman : Authority and Autonomy: Paradoxes in Modern Knowledge Work before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Authority and Autonomy: Paradoxes in Modern Knowledge Work:

Offers a detailed and entertaining analysis of the daily interactions between managers and employees in creative knowledge intensive organizations. Based on vivid examples, the book shows how both managers and employees entertain contradictory understandings of their mutual commitment.

About the Author SUSANNE EKMAN is Assistant Professor at the Department of Organization, Copenhagen Business School, Denmark. She holds an MA in Anthropology and a PhD in Management. She is primarily interested in the complex relationship between freedom and ethics and has recently pursued this issue ethnographically in the context of contemporary knowledge work.
