Jay A. Conger, Rabindra N. Kanungo : Charismatic Leadership in Organizations (Southeastern United States) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Charismatic Leadership in Organizations (Southeastern United States):

This book not only integrates the growing body of research and theory on charismatic leadership, but also pushes back the frontiers of our knowledge by introducing new theories and insights. The authors present a comprehensive model of the charismatic leadership process. The model is documented by extensive empirical research and richly illustrated with case examples of corporate leaders.

About the Author Jay Conger is Professor and Chairman of the Leadership Institute at USC. Prior to joining USC, he taught on the faculties of Harvard, INSEAD, and McGill. He has published four books, including one with Sage on charismatic leadership that won a CHOICE award in 1998. In addition, he has published extensively in the major academic journals. Rabindra N Kanungo is Faculty Chair Professor, Faculty of Management, McGill University.
