From SAGE Publications, Inc : How Advertising Works: The Role of Research (Graduate Survival Skills) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised How Advertising Works: The Role of Research (Graduate Survival Skills):

John Philip Jones, bestselling author of What's in a Name? and When Ads Work, has edited an authoritative handbook of research procedures that determine effective advertising. All participants in the advertising process - clients, media and agencies - are fully represented in this volume. Chapter authors reflect a global mix of academic and professional backgrounds and include: Leo Bogart, Andrew Ehrenberg, Simon Broadbent, Herbert Krugman, and the Editor John Philip Jones. Most chapters have been specifically written for this volume and are complemented by a few adaptations of classic articles.
