From Oxford University Press : Institutions, Production, and Working Life before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Institutions, Production, and Working Life:

What is the link between working life and the nature of production on the one hand, and the changing organization of the firms and institutions in which work and production take place? In this book leading socio-economic theorists analyze how these have changed over the last two decades.

About the Author Geoffrey Wood is at Professor, School of Management, University of Sheffield. Philip James is at Professor of Employment Relations, Middlesex University Business School.
