We use it as a resource for the public relations course in the MPA program at Western Carolina University as well. The worksheets are particularly helpful to students in the course as they work on

An understandable, easy read of the basics By YiayiaMouse Purchased as required text for a doctoral course. Although an easy read, it seemed "light" for this level of course and I do not feel like I really came away with any in-depth knowledge of the topic. It is a good overview of the very basics and a place to start for a non-profit trying to figure it out as they go... but I would say, that is about it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Decent Text By John T. Ayers This was a text used for a Government Press Relations graduate course. Not the best text for this purpose in my opinion but it would be good for a Nonprofit course.
