I think the layout could be greatly improved on, however. For example, in the section where the scholarships are listed by location, why not actually sort them by location? In other words, have all the scholarships applicable to Iowa grouped together. I don't need to sort through 150 pages of stuff that is mostly irrelevant to me.

Information on 1.5 million scholarships, grants, and prizes is easily accessible in this revised directory with more than 300 new listings that feature awards indexed by career goal, major, academics, public service, talent, athletics, religion, ethnicity, and more. Each entry contains all the necessary information for students and parents to complete the application process, including eligibility requirements, how to obtain an application, how to get more information about each award, sponsor website listings, award amounts, and key deadlines. With scholarships for high school, college, graduate, and adult students, this guide also includes tips on how to conduct the most effective search, how to write a winning application, and how to avoid scams.

"A present for anxious parents." Honolulu Advertiser "Advice on applying for scholarships from start to finish." Town Country Magazine "All students will profit from this highly detailed book."
